FYI – Marcia’s edits.

I’ve put these all in sharepoint and flagged them as Marcia’s edits. Note that they were made before Amy B rewrote a few paragraphs. I did my best to incorporate these when there were conflicts between Amy and Marcia’s comments.

Sending to you so you have the original in case you have questions.

So I made my changes on SP on the flight on Monday and even paid for Wifi on the plane so that they would upload. But when I double checked today the file on SP doesn’t have my last round of comments. I am still getting an upload error. So I apologize but here is a saved copy. I hope you are able to make this work without too much problem.
